

Exercise 1

This exercise is to train your brain that when you read the Quran and you see a word your brain should recognise the word and know it's meaning straight away.

The Harakat on the last letter doesn't matter we are going to learn in lesson 3 why the Harakat changes on the last letter.

Please do this exercise as it says.

Q1. Go to Surah Al-Imraan (3), Ayat No. 8, read the Ayat and say out aloud the meaning of that word you recognise and write down here _____

Q2. Go to Surah At-Teen (95), Ayat No. 6, read the Ayat and say out aloud the meaning of that word you recognise and write down here _____

Q3. Go to Surah Al-Baqarah (2), Ayat No. 118, read the Ayat and say out aloud the meaning of that word you recognise and write down here _____

Q4. Go to Surah Al-Baqarah (2), Ayat No. 10, read the Ayat and say out aloud the meaning of that word you recognise and write down here _____

Q5. Go to Surah Al-Baqarah (2), Ayat No. 163, read the Ayat and say out aloud the meaning of that word you recognise and write down here _____

Q6. Go to Surah Al-Ahzab (33), Ayat No. 71, read the Ayat and say out aloud the meaning of that word you recognise and write down here _____

Q7. Go to Surah Al-Anfaal (8), Ayat No. 28, read the Ayat and say out aloud the meaning of that word you recognise and write down here _____ and _____

Q8. Go to Surah Al-Israa (17), Ayat No. 42, read the Ayat and say out aloud the meaning of that word you recognise and write down here _____

Q9. Go to Surah Al-An-Aam (6), Ayat No. 100, read the Ayat and say out aloud the meaning of that word you recognise and write down here _____

Q10. Go to Surah Al-Bayyinah (98), Ayat No. 3, read the Ayat and say out aloud the meaning of that word you recognise and write down here _____